having been in custody in the Valley State Prison for Women in Chowchilla, California. Defendant does not contest detention. She was not interviewed by Pretrial Services.

- 2. Defendant poses a risk of nonappearance due to the fact that she is currently serving a state sentence in California, a history of nonappearance, and the lack of verified background information. She poses a risk of danger due to the nature of the instant offense and criminal history.
- 3. There does not appear to be any condition or combination of conditions that will reasonably assure the defendant's appearance at future Court hearings while addressing the danger to other persons or the community.

It is therefore ORDERED:

- (1) Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;
- (2) Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel;
- On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is confined shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding; and
- (4) The clerk shall direct copies of this Order to counsel for the United States, to counsel for the defendant, to the United States Marshal, and to the United States
